Carefully Crafted City Living

Holbeck Urban Village, the long-established heart of Leeds' independent creative scene, is a key element of the city's South Bank, one of Europe's most significant regeneration areas. 68 new homes made up of townhouses, apartments and penthouses are being created at The Ironworks by the UK's leading responsible real estate business, PfP igloo, and the development represents a long-awaited step forward in further cementing the reputation of Holbeck Urban Village as a great place to live, work and play.

Designed with a nod to the heritage architecture that surrounds The Ironworks - a legacy of Leeds' Industrial Revolution - these modern, energy efficient homes are close enough to enjoy all that the city centre has to offer and just far enough away to feel more 'village' than 'city'.

Townhouses, apartments and penthouses

The Ironworks includes 51 one and two bedroom apartments, 2 three bed penthouses and, unusually in Leeds city centre, 15 two and three-bedroom townhouses.

Each home has its own private outdoor space, with fixtures and fittings that are high quality, good-looking and sustainable, right down to the door handles. Interior layouts have been interrogated time and again, to create homes that are as functional and comfortable as they can be.

Inspired by the forge that once stood here, The Ironworks homes have been designed to make the most of natural light throughout the day.

About the developer

PfP igloo is an exciting partnership that brings together two of the UK's leading placemaking names. PfP Capital is a fund and asset management business that is part of the Places for People group. igloo is a well-established sustainable developer best known for creating multi-award winning schemes that are carefully designed to perform for people, place and planet.

Sustainable living

Driven by PfP igloo's core belief of delivering for people, place and planet, The Ironworks homes come with photo voltaic tiles, electric heating and highly insulated walls and ceilings.

At The Ironworks there will be limited parking spaces (neatly hidden from view) and residents will be offered on-site car club spaces, electric charging points and plenty of space for bike storage.

PfP igloo ensures all projects are driven by igloo footprint[®], a rigorous, internationally recognised methodology that ensures each project goes beyond buildings, to create activities and relationships that enhance communities and wellbeing.
